Re: Civil Theft Demand (FS 772.11)

Dear Mr. Paris:

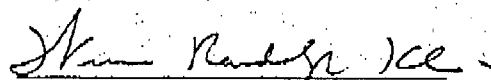

Pursuant to the statutes of the State of Florida, demand is hereby made upon you for treble damages in the amount of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) for money and items taken from James L. Paris Financial Services, Inc. and James L. Paris Securities, Inc. without permission and with felonious intent and to the detriment of James L. Paris Financial Securities, Inc., James L. Paris Financial Services, Inc., James L. Paris individually, and the investors and customers of these companies:

- (1) Money taken under false pretenses for personal or other unauthorized use in an amount exceeding $1,000,000.
- (2) Banking records, client billing records, and federal tax records of these companies which were unlawfully and illegally taken by and are in possession of Carmen Paris or delivered to his attorney, Michael LaFay.

You have 30 days from receipt of this demand for compliance thereof and receipt of a written release from civil liability for these specific acts of theft. Otherwise you are exposed to civil liability and damages as specified in this statute.

Sincerely,

W.R. Klein, P.A.

William Randolph Klein
